- Read:-*1. U. O. No. 1745/2020/KTU dated 14.12.2020.
2. Notification No. KTU/AD(EXAM)/2365/2020 10.02.2021.
3. Order of the Vice Chancellor in the file of even number dated 27.07.2021.

ORDER

As per paper read as (1) above, Orders were issued intimating that University will treat the maximum mark to be scored by a student in a subject as 70% of the maximum marks stipulated in the concerned regulation, and accordingly, the mark entered by a faculty in the University portal in a subject will be multiplied with 1.42857 (100/70) so as to obtain the final mark scored by the student in the subject. It was also stated that duration of examination will be 135 minutes instead of 180 minutes.

As per paper read as (2) above, it was notified that modified examination duration and maximum mark will be applicable only for regular students and students who undergo course repeat along with the regular students. In the case of students who attend examination as supplementary chances, the maximum mark and the duration of examination will be as per their concerned regulations. The modified maximum mark and time of examination are NOT APPLICABLE for such supplementary candidates/students.

It was also mentioned in the notification that modified reduced maximum mark and duration of examination will be applicable for regular and course repeat students only when they attend the examination in the regular mode. For students who fail in regular examinations, and later register as supplementary candidates, the time duration of examination and maximum mark will be as per their original regulation/ordinance. Precisely, the advantages of multiplication of the obtained mark by 1.42857 and that of the time of examination will be applicable only for regular appearances and that it will not be applicable in the case of supplementary examination chances of candidates.
